What would you do if you were Abraham and you were asked by God to leave behind all you know and move to a new place? Would you have laughed like Sarah when you were told you would have a baby at 90 years old?

William Booth

It wasn't just people in the bible that had faith to make changes. William Booth was the founder of the Salvation Army and through this charity has helped thousands of people. Who do you know who has great faith? How can you tell they live by faith?
